

COVID-19 SIMPSON UPDATE

We wanted to take this opportunity to keep you informed of how we are planning to support our colleagues and Clients in the coming weeks and months during this unprecedented situation.

At Simpson we are fully committed to ensuring we do everything we can to ensure our business continues in light of the current challenges faced with Coronavirus (COVID-19).

Our priority is to not only keep our colleagues and the wider community safe but to ensure that we can still offer the best quality service to all our clients with minimal disruption.

Following the latest advice from the UK Government, we would like to reassure you that the measures we have put in place will ensure we continue to operate effectively, while safeguarding the health and safety of our colleagues.

- We are operating as normal and we have provided our employees with technology, processes and procedures to work remotely. Allowing us to continue to provide our services, actively promoting the use of video and phone conferencing tools such as Skype.
- Our sites currently remain fully operational.
- In the weeks ahead, we will continue to monitor and respond to the Government advice and recommendations in relation to COVID-19. Work practices and procedures will be amended to reflect the latest guidelines.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish our clients and colleagues the best health over the coming weeks.

Neil Silcock

Managing Director